

Make-up Work

Several of you have failed to turn in much of the assigned work. During Spring Break, I am giving you the opportunity to get caught up on some of that work. You may make-up up to two missing/incomplete assignments for each subject (2 for Math, 2 for Science/Health, 2 for Art). See your Progress Reports for missing assignments (if you no longer have it, see me after school for a new print-out). This make-up work is due the day we get back from Spring Break, April 13, no exceptions.

Extra Credit

Visit a local museum, take pictures, and write a 1-2 page reflection focusing on what you saw, what you thought, what you liked/did not like, and just any general feelings about the museum. Focus on AT LEAST 3 different exhibits, providing details about them and any thoughts. Is any of it applicable to what you have learned in either of my classes or English/History?

You may choose from: LACMA, MOCA, The Getty, The Norton Simon, Museum of Tolerance, Page Museum, Japanese American National Museum (Ask me about any others, I know I've left some off)
